

alps academy

IDIOMS FOR LANGUAGE LEARNERS

SET 3

IDIOM EXERCISES
FOR LANGUAGE LEARNERS

*A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush
Call it a day
Don't judge a book by its cover
Fish out of water
Look before you leap
Miss the boat
The grass is always greener*

A decorative graphic at the top of the page featuring the word "IDioms" in large, colorful, blocky letters. The letters are arranged in a slightly curved, overlapping manner. The colors include pink, blue, orange, purple, yellow, and light blue. The word "S" is also visible in light blue.

contents

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush

Call it a day

Don't judge a book by its cover

Fish out of water

Look before you leap

Miss the boat

The grass is always greener

Example Conversations

Idiom Exercises

Exercise 1

Exercise 2

Advanced Exercise

Exercise Answers

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a lush green grassy field. The grass blades are various shades of green, with some in sharp focus in the foreground and others blurred in the background, creating a sense of depth. Overlaid on this background is white text in a mix of serif and script fonts.

The GRASS is always GREENER

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush

Meaning:

it is better to hold onto something you already have, rather than risking it for something that is uncertain

Example:

*The girl could have given up her nice job to start working at the new shop but a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

Call it a day

Meaning:

to stop working or end an activity

Example:

*We've finished our homework,
let's call it a day and go play outside.*

Don't judge a book by its cover

Meaning:

don't make assumptions about someone or something based on just their appearance

Example:

Sally thought the new student would be mean because of his tattoos, but she learned not to judge a book by its cover when he helped her with her math homework.

Fish out of water

Meaning:

feeling uncomfortable or out of place in the situation

Example:

When I moved to a new country, I felt like a fish out of water because everything was so different.

Look before you leap

Meaning:

to think carefully before taking action

Example:

Before crossing the street, remember to look before you leap to ensure it's safe.

Miss the boat

Meaning:

to miss an opportunity or chance

Example:

Sarah missed the boat when she wanted to join the school choir because she didn't turn up to the rehearsals.

The grass is always greener

Meaning:

other people's situations seems better than yours, even though this may not be true

Example:

Tommy always wants to change his role in the play because he thinks the grass is always greener on the other side.

A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH

Example Conversations

Amy: "Should I trade my old toy for Jason's new one?"

Sarah: "Think carefully, Amy. Remember, a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. You already have a toy that you enjoy."

Jack: "We've been playing for hours. Should we keep going?"

Lily: "No, let's call it a day. We've had a good training session."

Example Conversations

Tom: "I don't want to partner with Mark for the science project. He seems so quiet."

Lisa: "Don't judge a book by its cover, you might be pleasantly surprised."

Mia: "I just moved to a new school. I don't know anyone here."

Alex: "It's normal to feel like a fish out of water in a new place. Give it some time, and you'll be ok."

Sarah: "I'm thinking of signing up for the school talent show."

Emma: "That sounds exciting! Just remember to look before you leap and make sure you're well-prepared."

Example Conversations

Ryan: "I wanted to join the basketball team, but I forgot to submit the registration form."

Emma: "Oh no, Ryan! It looks like you missed the boat. The deadline was last week."

Mike: "I wish I had a bigger room like yours, Emily."

Emily: "Well, the grass is always greener on the other side. You might not like it so much when you have to tidy up and do the cleaning."

IDIOM EXERCISES
FOR LANGUAGE LEARNERS

IDIOM EXERCISES FOR LANGUAGE LEARNERS

IDIOMS

idiom exercise 1

Identify the Correct Idiom

Alps Academy

Delete the incorrect idiom

1. Before you jump into the swimming pool, remember to (look before you leap / don't judge a book by its cover) to make sure it's deep enough.
2. We have finished our painting project for today. Let's (miss the boat/ call it a day) and clean up.
3. Lisa always wishes she had curly hair like her friend Sarah, but she fails to see that (the grass is always greener/ a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush) on the other side

Delete the incorrect idiom

4. Tim thought the new student was not good at sports because he was thin, but he soon realized not to (call it a day/ judge a book by its cover) when he saw him playing basketball skillfully.

5. I was offered a job in another city with a higher salary, but I decided to stay because (a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush / you should look before you leap) and I felt good at my current position.

Delete the incorrect idiom

6. I wanted to buy that limited edition toy, but I (missed the boat / call it a day) and decided to save my money instead.

7. Sarah felt like (a fish out of water / the grass is always greener) when she moved to a new country and had to adjust to a different culture and language.

Alps Academy

idiom exercise 2

Complete the Sentence with the Correct Idiom

Alps Academy

Fill in the Blanks

1. As an exchange student in a foreign country, I often feel _____, trying to adapt to new customs and language.
2. I know you're tempted to quit your job and search for a better one, but remember that _____.
3. I wanted to buy tickets for the concert, but they sold out so quickly. I _____ on that one

Fill in the Blanks

4. Jenny is always dreaming about living in a big city, but she fails to realize that _____ on the other side.
5. Just because someone looks quiet and serious doesn't mean they're not friendly. Remember, _____.
6. Tommy always rushes into decisions without thinking. I always tell him to _____.
7. We've been studying for hours, and it's getting late. Let's _____ and continue tomorrow.

FISH OUT OF WATER

IDIOMS

advanced idiom exercise

Use the Idiom

Alps Academy

IDIOMS

Give an example of how you use the following idioms in a sentence

Missed the boat

Call it a day

Don't judge a book by its cover

Look before you leap

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush

Example:

I'm too late to join, I have missed the boat again.

IDIOM EXERCISES
FOR LANGUAGE LEARNERS

IDIOM EXERCISES - ANSWERS

Delete the incorrect idiom

1. Before you jump into the swimming pool, remember to look before you leap to make sure it's deep enough.
2. We have finished our painting project for today. Let's call it a day and clean up.
3. Lisa always wishes she had curly hair like her friend Sarah, but she fails to see that the grass is always greener on the other side

Delete the incorrect idiom

4. Tim thought the new student was not good at sports because he was thin, but he soon realized not to judge a book by its cover when he saw him playing basketball skillfully.

5. I was offered a job in another city with a higher salary, but I decided to stay because a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush and I felt good at my current position.

Delete the incorrect idiom

6. I wanted to buy that limited edition toy, but I missed the boat and decided to save my money instead.

7. Sarah felt like a fish out of water when she moved to a new country and had to adjust to a different culture and language.

Alps Academy

Fill in the Blanks

1. As an exchange student in a foreign country, I often feel like a fish out of water trying to adapt to new customs and language.
2. I know you're tempted to quit your job and search for a better one, but remember that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.
3. I wanted to buy tickets for the concert, but they sold out so quickly. I missed the boat on that one

Fill in the Blanks

4. Jenny is always dreaming about living in a big city, but she fails to realize that the grass is always on the other side.
5. Just because someone looks quiet and serious doesn't mean they're not friendly. Remember, don't judge a book by its cover
6. Tommy always rushes into decisions without thinking. I always tell him to look before you leap
7. We've been studying for hours, and it's getting late. Let's call it a day and continue tomorrow.

examples of idioms in a sentence

I'm too late to join, I have missed the boat again

Studying has been hard but we have done well, let's call it a day it was a surprise to see the power of the small women, it shows you don't judge a book by its cover

Wait! Are you sure you trust that advert?
Look before you leap

Keep your savings for now, a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush

if you would like to improve your English learn more idioms and take more practice exercises visit alps.academy

visit
alps.academy for more help with idioms, and other
English Learning

