

WEATHER IDIOMS

Alps Academy

Raining cats and dogs

very heavy rain

Take an umbrella, it's raining cats and dogs outside

Come rain or shine

you will do something no matter what happens

I will walk the dogs everyday, come rain or shine, said the new owner

Chasing rainbows trying to reach impossible goals

He spends his time chasing rainbows instead of working on real opportunities

Every cloud has a silver lining there is something good in every bad situation

Losing that job was tough, but it led me to a better career—every cloud has a silver lining

On cloud nine very happy

She was on cloud nine after passing her exams

Calm before the storm quiet time before trouble

The classroom was silent, the calm before the storm of final exams

Under the weather

feeling a little ill or unwell

I'm staying home today because I'm a bit under the weather
